MacCulloch Dancers

The school celebrated its first Dance Recital in 1955 under the direction of Rae MacCulloch. Rae, her daughters Heather Forbes and Deborah Wheeler continue to direct this internationally traveled ensemble in lively presentations of traditional dances of Scotland and Canadian Step Dancing. Over fifty years of success in entertainment has brought them to such places as Washington, the Rose Bowl Parade, New Orleans, Tennessee, Disneyland, California. More recently they have represented Canada in Disney world, Florida, Utah and Idaho, USA, Puerto Rico, The Republic of China, Spain, Mexico, Belgium, Bulgaria, the Netherlands, France, Scotland and Russia. On August 11th, 2005 the MacCulloch Dancers and the Sons of Scotland Pipe Band had the great honor of performing for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth at Balmoral Castle, Scotland. The group has also been featured on National television by CBC, CTV and local networks.

When young girls dream, they dream of dance and the MacCulloch troupe danced a dream"

Jim Farrell, Standard Freeholder 1989
